

NOTICE: American Rescue Plan Act Grants Notice HRSA-22-109

August 9, 2021

Dear provider,

The Health Resources & Services Administration (HRSA) reminds entities that provide health care that American Rescue Plan Act grant funding is available through the Health and Public Safety Workforce Resiliency Training Program , funding opportunity number HRSA-22-109.

As described by HRSA, these grant funds can be used to "plan, develop, operate or participate in health professions and nursing training activities using evidence-based or evidence-informed strategies, to reduce and address burnout, suicide, mental health conditions and substance use disorders and promote resiliency among health care students, residents, professionals, paraprofessionals, trainees, public safety officers, and employers of such individuals, collectively known as the "Health Workforce," in rural and underserved communities."

Eligible applicants include Health professions schools, academic health centers, state or local governments, Indian tribes and tribal organizations, or other appropriate public or private nonprofit entities (or consortia of such entities, including entities promoting multidisciplinary approaches), and entities that provide health care, including health care providers associations and Federally Qualified Health Centers.

Applications will be accepted through August 30, 2021. For additional information regarding this funding opportunity and to apply, please visit the Health and Public Safety Workforce Resiliency Training Program at:
